SENIORS

Can you remember when drama meant fighting over the best crayon? When our dreams were of being rock stars and astronauts? When we were cool if we jumped off the top of the monkey bars? It is now the year 2012 and the meaning of drama, dreams, and cool have changed along with everything else in our lives. We entered middle school, and in the blink of an eye, we were in high school. We've made friends, lost friends, and kept special ones in our hearts. Over our four years as Southern Rams, we've learned everything from cells, to quadratic equations, to the amendments of the Constitution. Most importantly, however, our teachers have taught us to believe in ourselves and to never give up in following our dreams. This year Southern Garrett High School's graduating Class of 2012 will make history--a 10 day spring break for the first time since 1979, only three snow days due to 92 inches of snow compared to the average 125 inches, and graduating two weeks earlier than the traditional June graduation. We start following our dreams and having adventures early by walking these halls one last time as students on May 20th. Some of us will stay in Maryland, some will move away to college, and some will help protect our country by joining the military. No matter where we all go in life, special pieces of us will always remain at Southern Garrett High School. But it is time to go to the next chapter in life and make Southern Garrett High School an amazing memory.

"This school year we entered as seniors, the class of 2012. We had senioritis before classes even started, we got to leave early and come in late. Everything we did was our last...our last homecoming, our last ram rumble, our last season as a Southern athlete, our last final exam...our last year in high school. We cherished the time spent with friends, classmates, and teachers. We started applying to colleges, near and far. As our final year of high school came to a close, we had been accepted, been rejected and found out exactly where we wanted to go and who we wanted to be. We realized that graduation is not the end, but a beginning."

STUDENT LIFE

Each one of us Rams at Southern Garrett High School has a different idea in mind as to how we like to spend our free time. Some ideas are events held right at our school like sporting events or dances, while some people simply like to spend time with their friends, family, or their lovable other half. Our lives in the classroom may contribute to creating a meaningful high school education, but people don't normally remember what they did in biology, algebra, or other classes. Our lives outside of the classroom are full of the defining moments that we will remember forever. These moments are the stories that we will tell in the future and reminisce with old friends. These moments shaped our personalities and guided us into our futures. Whether it was dressing up over spirit week with friends, taking a trip with our family, dancing the night away at Prom, or even acting on stage like a cowboy or a kid in Neverland, all of these moments made us laugh together, and they are the memories that we will associate with our time at Southern Garrett High School.

It was the first time the prom was at the Wisp Resort since the late 80s.

There were 333 tickets sold.

Fun Photo Booth gave students a keepsake of the evening.

As a party favor, the DJ made CDs for the students who attended Prom with the songs chosen by the seniors.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The Class of 2015 entered the halls of Southern High School for the very first time on August 24th, not realizing that the four years they will spend at Southern will fly by. Before they know it they will be seniors ready to graduate. As the newest edition to our student body, freshmen joined the Southern Rams timid and shy, while sophomores had just gained a sense of comfort within Southern's halls, staff, schedule and rules. The juniors wait with joyful anticipation for their senior year, knowing there's not much time left until they are on top. Each grade these students pass through calls for special moments and memories that together build the stairway to growing up and leading them into their futures. No matter the grade level, Southern has the pleasure of having a group of students that represents our school well: with respect, spirit, and class.

ATHLETICS

People file into the bleachers at games, tournaments, and competitions. They all cheer for the same thing, success for Southern Ram athletes and teams. Family, faculty, friends, and alumni rally behind the competitors, encouraging them and pushing them toward victories. Along with each victory comes an unforgettable memory. The memory of being part of a team, spending time with teammates and tasting victory and unfortunately defeat. The combination of hard work, high hopes, and disappointment are found in all Southern athletes. These elements combined with winnings, achievements, broken records, emotional bonds—make up our athletic teams and those defining moments at Southern Garrett High School.

MESSAGE FROM COACH
"JV had a very successful season at 4-2-2. This is especially impressive because they only had 10-11 players on the roster. (Only 11 play at a time so they had no subs.) Sometimes they had to play 'down' in numbers against teams that continued to play 'up' in numbers against them. I am proud of their accomplishments in the face of this adversity."

ESSAGE FROM A COACH Coaching Unified Tennis was uite a challenge because it
as our first year for this sport

watch the different teams be

"The girls did a fine job this year! As in the past, they cheered at a variety of sporting events for both fall and winter seasons. Last June, we were invited to compete in the NCA national competition in Dallas,TX, scheduled in December. However, our commitment to support our school's sports teams took the priority. Our five seniors, Jenny, Patty, Haylee, Olivia, and Georgette were super and we will miss them!"

MESSAGE FROM COACH
"The 2011-2012 Wrestling Team had an outstanding season. We won the Bi-County tournament for the 7th straight year. Thanks to Austin Shaffer, we crowned an individual state champion for the 7th straight year. He won the 1A/2A State Championship at 106lbs. We had a strong group of seniors who will be greatly missed next season, but the young wrestlers are strong as well and will step up and fill those shoes nicely."

MESSAGE FROM COACH

"It was an up-and-down season for us this year, but overall the team improved greatly throughout the year. Several players missed substantial time early in the year due to injuries and that really hurt us, especially with our pitching. COMMUNITY

It is with great thanks to the local businesses and organizations that the Highlander yearbook staff presents Defining Moments for the 2011-2012 school year. These supporters of Southern Garrett High School allow us to thrive with such a variety of athletics, activties, academic opportunities, and countless others. Business logos surround our fields and courts, as well as cover Highlander yearbook pages and Acorn newspaper pages. Friends, family, and neighbors are always willing to dig through their pockets to find some spare change for any raffle, car wash, or fundraiser that benefits a Southern Ram student, activity, or sport. Without our generous and supporting community little success would be found within the halls of Southern Garrett High School. Thank You!

Mariah,
You'll always be our little girl,
no matter what path you take,
We'll often want to help you
in decisions that you make,
But we'll try to sit back silently,
we have to let you grow,
When suddenly you're a woman,
and you want us to let go,
We'll still hold on very gently,
so you can't feel our grip,
But we will always be there,
just in case you slip.

We are so proud of you and the young woman that you've become!

We love you,

May 14, 1994...a morning filled with tears and a feeling of breathlessness. The morning that I was informed that not only was I carrying one, but THREE 'bambinos!' Oh, how overwhelming that was as well as the days that followed. What an adventure we have been blessed to share. There have been many tears and breathless moments since that morning. I wouldn't change one of them. I have thanked God and continue to thank God for my healthy, beautiful, baby girls! You have all grown to be amazing young ladies. I am so very proud of each of you. And now, the time has come for you to spread those wings and fly into your next adventure. The time that we thought would never come, but has, quicker than we imagined. Always look to God for His guidance and remember 'with God, everything is possible.' I love you girls and I hope you dance.

What a blessing you have been to our family. God gave us a gift when he gave us you. We are so proud of you and the young man you have become. You live your life by the Eagle Scout oath you took. You truly are trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent. What an honor to be part of your life. Your ability to find kindness and goodness in all people amazes us and helps us to be better people. You inspire us to do the same. We are humbled by your determination to overcome obstacles and adversities that have been your burden to bear. You have proven to yourself and others that you can and will be a successful, independent member of society. You have taught us more life lessons, what love and kindness truly are and how all of us can be better people just by being who you are and what you stand for. We wish you much success at PTI. May God guide you and remain with you in all life's journeys. His love and our love will follow you always. Remember you are never alone. Have fun and stay true to yourself. We thank you for teaching us to find the silver lining in everything. Alex, go out there and show the world that you are here to make a difference. We love you and are always here for you. You will always be our little bud.

Love,
Uncle Mark and Aunt Connie

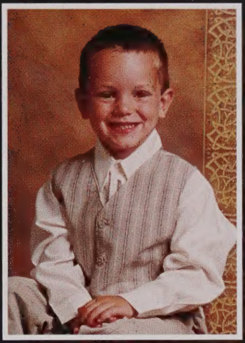
It has been our privilege to watch you grow and to guide you through making life's tough decisions. You have pursued your passions and have surpassed our expectations of the goals that have been set before you. Of all the things we have taught you, it is you who has taught us that if you're not in the game of life, you're just a spectator who practices with the team. Thank you for refusing to be a spectator!



Congratulations on your accomplishments, we are very proud of you!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Emily Huxford

Emily,

Dr. Seuss says it so well; we thought how we feel he could easily tell:

Today you are You, that is truer than true. There is no one alive who is Youer than You.

Why fit in when you were born to stand out?

The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you'll go.

So be sure when you step, step with care and great tact. And, remember that life's A Great Balancing Act. And will you succeed? Yes! You will, indeed! (98 and ¾ percent guaranteed) Kid, you'll move mountains.

Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting. So…get on your way.

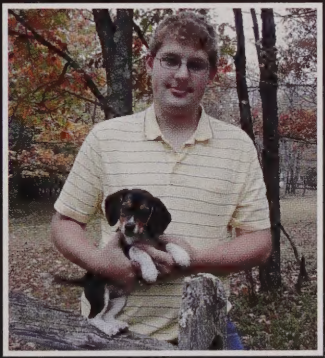
Emily, we love you and are so proud of you…always! XOXO

Love,
Mom and Dad

Aaron Lantz

Aaron,

Congratulations Aaron on your Southern High School 2012 graduation! Always treasure your high school memories and friends. As you move onto college, you will continue to do well with anything you set your mind to doing. We are so proud of your many accomplishments in 4-H, FFA, and FIRST robotics at the local, state, and national levels! Continue to work hard, play fair, do for others, and enjoy life. We love you!



Love,
Mom & Dad (& Levi too)

P.S. A special thanks to the staff at SHS for all you have done for Aaron. You are great!

Paige Lucas

"This life is what you make it. No matter what, you're going to mess up sometimes, it's a universal truth. But the good part is you get to decide how you're going to mess it up. Just because you fail once, doesn't mean you're gonna fail at everything. Keep trying, hold on, and always, always, always believe in yourself, because if you don't, then who will, sweetie? So keep your head high, keep your chin up, and most importantly, keep smiling, because life's a beautiful thing and there's so much to smile about." -Marilyn Monroe

Paige, This says it ALL! We have watched you grow into an outstanding young lady and have been blessed by the love and smiles that you grace us with everyday! Thank you for who you are and how easy you have made it to be your family! We wish you all that life has to offer-embrace it!

Love you with all our heart!
Mom, Dad, and Colton

Michelle Lee, our last little girl,

This is it--you are now a high school graduate! Congratulations! Our used-to-be shy, little, momma's girl, homebody has grown into a beautiful, intelligent, young lady. We are all so proud of you and we know you will succeed in everything you put your mind to. We love you very much!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Katie

Teona,

From the day your parents brought you home from the hospital, you were my little "monkey girl." You were never just a niece; you are more like my little sister. The JROTC program would like to extend a sincere thanks to: Elks Lodge, Oakland Lions Club, Ladies Auxiliary of VFW Post 10077 and Oakland American Legion; VFW Post 10077, Sang Run Sports Shop and parent booster of JROTC for their support throughout the school year.

A big thank you to the SGHS Alumni Association for supporting the Business Department. Generous donations have allowed our program to exceed expectations and offer the students a jump start toward financial literacy.

The Fine Arts Department would like to thank the Garrett County Arts Council for its support of the visual and performing arts program at Southern HS.

2012 Colophon

"Defining Moments" was published for the students of Southern Garrett High School at 345 Oakland Drive, Oakland, MD 21550

Theme: "Defining Moments" magazine style theme was selected by Editors during the Fall semester class.

Endsheets: The endsheets are a black card stock with no print. The staff decided to not do prin on the endsheets because of the magazine style theme.

Photography: Senior portraits were taken by LifeTouch Studios and Underclassmen portraits were taken by Strawbridge Studios. Thank you to the following individuals who provided photos to the staff: The Republican Newspaper, Shari Miller, Arthur Hanlin, Rhonda Tasker, tristaterunner.com and the countless number of SHS students and parents. Thank you!!!

Equipment and Software: "Defining Moments" was created using Jostens' online program Yearbook Avenue. Adobe Photoshop CS3 were used to edit photographs and create cutouts. Candid pictures taken by the yearbook staff were taken by a Canon Rebel XTiEOS Digital Camera.

Thank you to the SHS administration, faculty and staff for the support. Thank you to Fred Reeping and Val Mease at Jostens for helping us throughout the year. Thank you to the students of SHS for being a WONDERFUL group of students to photograph.

Publishing: 400 copies of the 2012 Highlander Yearbook were printed by Jostens Publishing Company of State College, PA. Pages were printed on 100# glossy paper. The 2012 yearbook is the first all color yearbook in Southern High School. Book trim size is 9x12.

Message from Senior Editor Briana Wagner

The 2012 Highlander yearbook staff has done a wonderful job in Defining Moments of this school year. I am so glad that I have been part of such a great staff. The past three years on the yearbook staff have taught me a lot. Ms. Zumpano is a wonderful teacher and does awesome work. Being on the yearbook staff has taught me to always do my best and to never stop improving. I am so glad I have the chance to be part of such a great group and to also be taught by such an amazing teacher like Ms. Zumpano!!! I will take everything she has taught me throughout the three years of being on the staff with me everywhere I go! I wish Kassi Smith and Sydney Legeer the best of luck next year & hope they enjoy their senior year and make it the best that it can be just like I did! Best wishes to my fellow seniors on their futures!

Message from Senior Editor Michelle Welch

I have enjoyed every moment I have been part of the Highlander yearbook staff for Southern. The staff has done a wonderful job at capturing the Defining Moments of Southern's 2011-2012 school year, whether it was in the classroom, on the dance floor, or on the court or field. This yearbook does a great job of congratulating Southern Garrett High School on its 60th anniversary; it's all color with several additional pages and so many other amazing features. I will miss working with the yearbook staff and Ms. Zumpano, but I wish next year's group the best of luck. Good luck to Sydney Legeer and Kassi Smith, they will do a great job with next year's book. I would also like to wish my 2012 classmates luck with their future endeavors, and thank you for giving me a memorable high school experience. Lastly, a special thanks to my teachers, especially Ms. Zumpano for all that she does for her students and the school as a whole. If it weren't for this wonderful person, the school would not have a way to remember it's amazing and defining moments. Sometimes people do not understand the work and dedication it takes to produce a yearbook, especially the type of book that Ms. Zumpano directs, and the book isn't even hers! She is a special person I will never forget and will always remember when thinking back to my high school days.

Message from Advisor Ms. Zumpano

Words can not express how happy I am about this yearbook. At first I was against an all color book. However, after some arm twisting, I finally gave in. Looking at the book now, I am happy the staff insisted on making it all color. Minus some normal production problems and issues, you 2011-2012 staff did an GREAT job. I am very proud of you. And you should be proud of YOUR publication.

This year's yearbook was one of my favorite yearbooks to create. Michelle Welch and Briana Wagner--you have been wonderful to work with and you will be deeply missed!!! Underclassmen--For those of you that dare to return to the staff--I look forward to creating another Highlander masterpiece. :)

All my best to the SHS students and congratulations class of 2012!

Message from Underclassmen Editor Kassi Smith

This year's yearbook was the best yearbook I have worked on. Thanks to all of the helpful yearbook staff we have been able to make it one of the best yet. All of the hard work has paid off with an all color yearbook. I want to wish the seniors the best of luck and to follow your dreams! The seniors in yearbook class: thank you for letting me get to know you better! Briana it has been a true gift working with you this year! You have taught me many things to watch out for next year with the yearbook. You also taught me to not be afraid to fight for what I want in the yearbook. Good Luck with your schooling! Next year I can't wait to work on my senior yearbook and make it the best! I would like to thank Ms. Zumpano for being an amazing teacher and teaching me so much! I can't wait to work with you again next year! You have taken me in like your own child and I know if I ever need anything you will help me right away!

Congrats Class of 2012!
Good Luck to you all!

Message from Underclassmen Editor Sydney Legeer

Defining Moments is one of the greatest yearbooks that was ever produced by the Highlander staff. It is the first all color yearbook with more pages than our traditional book. I would like to give a special thanks to our senior editors, Michelle Welch and Briana Wagner. You two made an awesome yearbook with a creative theme. Kassi Smith, I hope next year we can make a book as great as this one. Ms. Zumpano, this year was fantastic and I hope next year will be even better! The amount of dedication it takes to produce a yearbook is astounding. Our staff works hard to create the best yearbook each year! Congratulations Class of 2012; this incredible yearbook was made just for you.
